

NAIL TECHNOLOGY CURRICULUM

ORIENTATION

History and Career Opportunities in Nail Technology

This chapter will focus on the cosmetics and skin care practices of earlier cultures and the changes in skin care and grooming in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. You will learn the career options available to licensed nail technicians.

Life Skills

After completing this chapter, the student will have the knowledge on the principles that contributes to personal and professional success as well as the concept of self-management. The characteristics of a healthy, positive attitude and the attributes of a strong work ethics will also be covered, as well as ethics and time management techniques.

Your Professional Image

This module is designed to introduce students to the professional hygiene, proper postures and movements.

Communicating for Success

The objective of this chapter is to understand the golden rules of human relations and the importance of an effective communication. The students will learn how to conduct a successful client consultation and to handle delicate communications with clients and co-workers.

GENERAL SCIENCE

Infection Control

The student will be introduced to the types and classifications of bacteria, types of disinfectants and how they are used. The student will learn the differences between sterilization, disinfection and sanitation as well as the importance of sanitation for the health and safety of your clients and for themselves.

General Anatomy and Physiology

This chapter teaches you the importance of anatomy, physiology and histology for a nail technician. The student will become familiar with cells, their structure and their reproduction, tissues found in the body as well as the main body systems and their basic functions.

Skin Structure, Growth and Nutrition

This module will provide the awareness of the skin structure and composition as well as the conditions and disorders and will teach the student to recognize diseases that should not be treated in the salon. They will also be able to identify and explain the benefits of proper nutrition

Nail Structure and Growth

This objective of this module is to understand nail growth. The student will be able to identify and explain the structure and composition of the nail.

Nail Disorders and Diseases

This module will provide the awareness of nail conditions and disorders and will teach the student to recognize diseases that should not be treated in the salon.

Basics of Chemistry

The module introduces the student to basics of chemistry. The structure, properties and differences between organic and inorganic will be discussed as well as the pH scale.

Nail Product Chemistry Simplified

Training to the CND nail product will be given. The student will understand cosmetics ingredients, their functions as well as product safety.

Basics of Electricity

The student will acquire knowledge of the basics of electricity and will learn about the four types of electrotherapy.

NAIL CARE

Manicuring

After completing this chapter, the student will have the knowledge and practical skills to perform a complete manicure, to identify the tools required and demonstrate safe and correct handling. They will be able to exhibit proper setup of a table, identify the different nail shapes while incorporating sanitation and disinfection requirements.

Pedicuring

After completing this chapter, the student will have the knowledge and practical skills to perform a complete pedicure, to identify the tools required and demonstrate safe and correct handling. They will be able to exhibit proper setup of a table, identify the different nail shapes while incorporating sanitation and disinfection requirements.

Artificial Nail

The student will have the knowledge and practical skills to perform gel nail enhancement, shellac and nail art. An introduction to acrylic nails will be demonstrated.

BUSINESS SKILLS:

Seeking Employment

This chapter will provide knowledge on what is needed to be successful in a service profession, it will prepare the student for passing the licensed exam and prepare them for employment.

On the Job

This module will provide students the information about their employment possibilities and the responsibilities related to each position.

The Salon Business

This chapter is designed to prepare the student with the qualities necessary to be successful when you are going into business for yourself and knowing the importance of keeping accurate business records. The student will also have the knowledge of the basic principles of selling products, the purpose of effective salon advertising and knowing the importance of understanding client value and how effective easy to build a clientele.

CANB BY-LAWS:

This chapter will focus on the by-laws of the Cosmetology Association of New Brunswick.

Notes: The Medes College reserves the right to change course curriculum, schedule, fees or to postpone classes if they needed.